

U.S. Department of Agriculture
APHIS
Horse Protection Program
Presents:

Equine *Thermography Seminar
FREE and Open to the Public

Date: Thursday, Dec 13, 2007
Time: 9:00am to 5:00pm (with 1 hour break)
Place: Calsonic Arena, Shelbyville, TN (The Celebration Showgrounds)
Speakers: Dr. Jim Waldsmith - The Equine Center; San Luis Obispo, CA
Dr. Tracy Turner - Anoka Equine Veterinary Services; Elk River, MN
Contact: Dr. Rachel Cezar, Horse Protection Coordinator
(301)734-5784 or rachel.cezar@aphis.usda.gov

*Thermography is a technology used by USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) to enforce the Horse Protection Act.

For more information on the HPA log onto www.aphis.usda.gov/animal\_welfare/index.shtml.

For more information on thermography, please visit www.flirthermography.com or www.veteldiagnostics.com

We hope to see you at the Seminar!